Teaching RESILIENCY

Offering HOLISTIC PROGRAMS

Thanks to your generosity:

- Ebony* is charting a course to college and career! As a high school freshman with a future career interest in business entrepreneurship, she is exploring higher education options through our college prep program. Through The Patch's relationships with area colleges & universities, she is going to be able to find the right fit. Along the way, Patch staff members will be offering guidance and encouragement.
- Mia* knows she is not alone. Like other parents, she goes back and forth between sadness and anger because of her teenage son's poor choices and impulsive behaviors. Mr. Doug and Rev. Calvin from The Patch's Family Development Department offer empathy and expertise to counsel her with constructive strategies as she single parents her son and two daughters.
