

The Cabbage Patch:
Where Every Child Can
Find Their Potential

The
Cabbage Patch
Settlement House, Inc.

Destiny, a third grader, joined The Patch having a Kindergarten reading level. In just four weeks with the help of Patch staff and mentors, she advanced to a second grade reading level, even eagerly volunteering to read aloud. We expect her confidence and development to continue!

Renee arrived at The Patch as a reserved sixth grader. Over the years, with staff support she blossomed into a teen leader and is now college-bound, impressively achieving success. The Patch's secret? Seeing the hidden potential in everyone and nurturing that with love.

TaShara, a determined Patch parent, began the MBA program at the University of Louisville with the support of our Family Development department. In addition to outfitting her and her school-age son with supplies for the academic year, with The Patch's encouragement, TaShara is forging a path to a brighter future for her family.
